

Training

« ICT Start »

With ADEM, discover a new approach to IT professions!

ICT Start is a new created training to get in touch with the IT sector and gives the possibility to discover the different IT jobs whom will help you selecting the next step into the IT sector.

Training content

- Introduction to programming
- Creating static web pages using HTML5 and CSS3
- Client-Side Scripting I : Creating dynamic web pages
 - Learn basic language elements using input and output windows
 - Manipulate the content of an HTML element
 - Use buttons and react to events
 - Conditional statements
 - Elementary validation of input fields
 - Loops
- Client-Side Scripting II : Modular programming
 - Create and use custom functions
 - Create and use one-dimensional fields and lists
 - Using an API with JavaScript
 - Cybersecurity awareness
- Employability
- Logical test (mandatory for follow up trainings offered by ADEM)

Target group

Jobseekers registered with ADEM wishing to direct their careers towards the new professions in web and mobile technologies.

After the ICT Start training, the results of the mandatory logical test will clarify if an ICT training is suitable for the participant. A face-to-face interview will lead the candidate to the appropriate ICT training in relation to his interests and skills.

Qualifications required

- Diploma: No specific pre-requisite qualification
- Language skills: EN – have a good level in English (read, spoken, written)
- Other:
- Be motivated
 - Have basic computer skills
 - Have an interest for IT: internet, databases, development
 - Master technical knowledge and analytical skills
 - Have good communication skills

 DURATION	2 weeks
 LOCATION	Digital Learning Hub Luxembourg (DLH) 14, porte de France L-4360 Esch/Alzette
 CONTACT	Interested? Please ask your personal ADEM counsellor or contact employeur-ict@adem.etat.lu

